

Carr Family – Waiting Triumphantly

What good is it on my knees cryin' and begging please it is no good if I'm not willing to wait.

Waiting says I believe He'll come with victory, resting in perfect peace til He makes a way.

And I am hoping expectantly, waiting triumphantly, God will be on the scene just any time.

Praying, I daily look, holding the blood-stained book, waiting triumphantly til He arrives.

My patience is sorely tried, with Satan's constant lies, you're God will never come, He's nowhere near but I stand right in his face, singing Amazing Grace, walking on water like He's already here.

And I am hoping expectantly, waiting triumphantly, God will be on the scene just any time.

Praying, I daily look holding the blood-stained book, waiting triumphantly til He arrives.

And I am hoping expectantly, waiting triumphantly, God will be on the scene just any time.

Praying, I daily look holding the blood-stained book, waiting triumphantly til He arrives.

Waiting triumphantly til He arrives...

And I am hoping expectantly, waiting triumphantly, God will be on the scene just any time.

Praying, I daily look holding the blood-stained book, waiting triumphantly til He arrives.

Waiting triumphantly til He arrives...
