Winter 2023/2024

Dear Brethren in Christ,

Warmest greetings in the love of our Lord! As the chill of winter wraps around us, I find warmth in the fellowship we share and the updates I bring to you from the heart of our ministry, Digital Missions Display.

What a year 2023 has been! Reflecting on it fills our hearts with gratitude and awe at the Lord's guidance. In obedience to His 'small voice', we made a significant leap of faith, moving from the familiar landscapes of Michigan to the new horizons of South Carolina. Just as Abraham stepped out in faith, we too are journeying into the plans God has for us, clinging to His promise in Proverbs 3:6, "In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

In November, we were blessed to attend the largest missions conference in the world, the International Conference on Missions in Oklahoma City. What an incredible gathering of God's people, united in The Great Commission! It was a time of learning, fellowship, and sharing the vision of Digital Missions Display with fellow believers.

The Lord has graciously opened doors for us to present our ministry to three churches. The reception has been heartwarming, and the encouragement we received has been a blessing to our souls. It's thrilling to see how the missionsApp is now aiding over 20 new church partners in bridging the gap between members and missionaries. Truly, as it is written in 1 Corinthians 3:9, "For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building."

One of the most exciting developments this year has been the start of the "Missionary Profile Podcast." It's been a joy to connect with missionaries in the field and share their inspiring stories live on YouTube. And come February 2, 2024, I will be interviewing evangelist Justin Cooper. I anticipate a time of rich conversation and spiritual insight, so please keep us in your prayers.

As we look ahead, I am reminded of the words in Philippians 4:4, "Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice." Despite the challenges and changes, our joy remains in Him who calls us, equips us, and sends us forth. Your prayers, support, and partnership in the ministry mean more than words can express.

May this letter find you abounding in the love and peace of our Saviour. Let us continue to hold fast to the faith, support one another in prayer, and rejoice in the work the Lord is accomplishing through us.

With heartfelt thanks and blessings,

What is the spiritual meaning of Epiphany?
The name Epiphany comes from the Greek epiphaneia, meaning "appearance" or "manifestation," and refers to the manifestation of Jesus Christ to the world.
