

Road to Camelot

01

I am HOME!

I am sure most of you have already heard but if you haven't, I am officially back in the states! I got back in August and hit the ground running to apply for career missions! I went to Missouri in October for the official interviews. It's official now I am a career missionary! Woohoo!!

02

Where too?

So here is the new complicated part about where I will be going. I am going to a country in West Africa, it is a sensitive country. This means that the local government doesn't not want us there spreading the gospel. So, because of that we will be going there "to start a business". This also means that I can't say where I am going online, even in emails like this. Because of this we have given the country a nick name "Camelot" so when I say I am going to Camelot don't look it up. You won't find anything 😊 however, if we meet up in person, I'd be happy to tell you specifically where I am going!

03 How long will I be here?

So now that I am approved and know where I am going, I will be getting my new budget soon! As soon as I have that raised, I will be able to head to Africa again! As of right now my goal will be to have my budget raised by January 2025. So, unless God moves like crazy, I will probably be in the states for about a year more. I have already had a chance to go to a couple of events and meet new pastors and old friends!

04

How can you get involved?!

First, I would love to grab coffee with you so I can tell you in more detail about what I will be doing and where, so please respond to this email or give me a call! Secondly, I do have a budget to raise! I am looking for $500 in monthly support raised by February! If you are already supporting me, can I just say a huge THANK YOU! If you are not yet or feel like God is laying it on your heart to give more scan the QR code in this newsletter or follow the link in the email! Now most importantly I NEED NEED your prayers! The enemy has a strong hold on this country. But our God is bigger by far! Please partner with me in prayer for Camelot and that God would already be softening hearts.

Prayer Points:

- God to soften hearts in Camelot
- Good connections with Pastors
- God would send more people to be apart of the team!
